1. INTRODUCTION

A. Background

The inaugural International Qur'an Recitation Awards at Universitas Syiah Kuala (IQRA – USK) marks a momentous occasion deeply entrenched in the traditions of Syiah Kuala University and the wider Islamic community. As this esteemed event commences, it draws inspiration from the university's steadfast commitment to academic excellence and spiritual enlightenment. Universitas Syiah Kuala has long been recognized as a leading institution in Indonesia, renowned for its promotion of Islamic values, fostering interfaith dialogue, and championing the principles of peace and tolerance.

Inaugurating this historic competition, we honor the legacy of the esteemed Ulama and Islamic Scholar, Syaikh Abd al-Ra'ūf al-Sinkilī, better known as Tengku Syiah Kuala, from whom the university derives its name. Tengku Syiah Kuala was not only revered for his profound expertise in fiqh and syariah but also distinguished as a master in various Qiraat, encompassing Qirā'āt Imam 'Ashim riwayat Hafsh, qirā'āt Imam Abu 'Amr riwayat Al-Dauriy, and qirā'āt Imam Nāfi' riwayat Qālun. His teachings and wisdom extended to influential mentors such as 'Abd al-Rahīm bin al-Shiddīq al-Khāsh and Amin bin al-Shiddīq al-Mizjajī, both esteemed tutors of renowned Qaris, Muhammad al-Qusyasyī and 'Abdullah bin Muhammad al-Adanī.

With deep reverence for this heritage, the IQRA - USK embarks on its inaugural journey as a national platform of unparalleled significance, attracting gifted students from every corner of Indonesia. The competition embodies a beacon of intellectual and spiritual enlightenment, empowering participants with a profound understanding of Al-Qur'an's teachings and inspiring them to become custodians of Islamic knowledge and virtues.

The IQRA - USK transcends being a mere competition; it is a jubilant celebration of Islamic heritage and cultural diversity. Participants will immerse themselves in the mesmerizing beauty of Qur'anic verses, embarking on a journey of spiritual exploration and embracing the values of compassion, empathy, and unity that reverberate within the profound teachings of Al-Qur'an. This year's event is even more special as it is held to commemorate the 63rd Milad (anniversary) of Universitas Syiah Kuala, further solidifying the university's legacy of combining academic excellence with spiritual enrichment.

Aligned with Universitas Syiah Kuala's vision, the IQRA - USK endeavors to nurture graduates who embody not only academic brilliance but also an unwavering moral character.
